ANDROID BUILDERS SUMMIT

THE LINUX FOUNDATION
ANDROID™
BUILDERS
S U M M I T

April 13 - 14, 2011 - San Francisco, CA

The Android™ Builders Summit is a technical summit for OEMs, their device manufacturers, integrators, custom builders, and the growing Android and Linux Kernel developer communities. Android is expanding to an increasing number of industry segments in addition to smart phones and tablets. There is a need for the ecosystem of builders to collaborate on a common solution for existing limitations and desired features across all of these device categories.
